EXPERIENCE

Litigation Legal Assistant – Clark Hill
May 2023 – March 2026

- Managed high-volume litigation support workflow, including pleadings, discovery, revisions, proofreading, e-filing, docket tracking, billing, time entry, and attorney follow-through.
- Synthesized monthly report summarizing major multinational automaker's class action matters from raw case activity, dockets, and attorney updates; drafts required little attorney revision before final delivery.
- Supported firm's Assistant General Counsel on matters requiring discretion and careful handling of highly sensitive information.
- Filed in high-level courts (e.g., MDL, appellate, U.S. Supreme Court), researching procedural requirements and confirming finer points with clerk or technical support.
- Provided cross-coverage for other assistants' attorneys during PTO and sick-day absences.

Paralegal (Litigation, HR, Government) – Reyes Kurson
January – April 2023

- Drafted employment policies, job advertisements, onboarding/offboarding checklists, and firm's first employment manual for client-facing RFI responses.
- Prepared, proofread, and e-filed pleadings and other outgoing documents.
- Provided campaign assistance, including event photography and preparation/proofreading of promotional materials.

Contract Management Paralegal – Redbud Roots
September – November 2022

- Started contract-tracking database to manage vendor and service agreements.
- Reviewed and summarized – without AI assistance – hundreds of vendor and service contracts and related NDAs for legal concerns, key terms, and general counsel issues.

Litigation Legal Assistant – Howard & Howard Attorneys
July 2010 – June 2022

- Managed long-term litigation support workflow, including pleadings, discovery, e-filing, calendaring, billing, time entry, expense processing, and attorney follow-through.
- Worked with CTO and NetDocuments developers to report bugs and suggest feature improvements.
- Trained new employees, answered recurring workflow questions, and shared practical tips with colleagues.
- Improved internal forms and resources, including court-link references, PTO tracking, and practical workflow guides.

Roaming Legal Assistant – Drinker Biddle & Reath
November 2005 – October 2008

- Provided long-term support for high-volume litigation, labor & employment (L&E), corporate and intellectual property (IP) practices with minimal transition time.
- Prepared, proofread, and filed initiating, responsive, motion, discovery, and post-judgment pleadings.
- Prepared briefing memoranda for returning assistants on open matters and unresolved issues.
- Completed five-day training in six hours due to urgent staffing need; earned discretionary bonus.

Litigation Legal Assistant – Arnstein & Lehr
April – October 2005

- Prepared, proofread, and filed litigation pleadings and discovery materials; reorganized case materials by sorting documents and indexing and rebinding pleadings and discovery.
- Conducted case-related internet research and converted firm forms from WordPerfect to Word.

Litigation Legal Assistant – Swanson, Martin & Bell
March 1999 – April 2005
Prepared, proofread, and filed initiating, responsive, motion, discovery, and post-judgment pleadings for multiple-attorney workloads; used Word templates, forms, and macros to optimize turnaround time.

Campaign Communications Specialist – Campaign to Elect Sheryl Ann Pethers (concurrent)
November 2003 – March 2004
Supported non-slated candidate in a 40,000-vote race won by 54 votes, creating the campaign website, designing newspaper ads, preparing questionnaires, reviewing designer work, and maintaining campaign databases.
